

Phase I

Adopted Mission

To study options and develop a comprehensive public and stakeholder involvement and outreach process for the community to further discuss and make decisions about all the appropriate long-term governance options for The Woodlands. The Ad Hoc Governance Committee will produce a document that describes the range of governance options and outlines a public and stakeholder outreach/involvement plan that defines the various stakeholders and outlines specific involvement activities with a timeline for completion.

July 2003